MORTON prophesied that as Indiana votes in October, so votes the Union in November. That is true enough, and the democracy have Indiana. Bring in another!

IT HAS been reported, and we may expect to hear it often on the eve of the election, that Mr. Park is off the track. We have only to stand firm and go to the polls and do our duty, and all will be well. All such reports are untrue, and you can deny it, and pronounce all such reports as false.

COL. BULLEN has been in office nearly forty years. Why can he not give the place, just for one time, to a young man? Does he suspect that he owns the Democratic party, and will be not listen to the voice of the majority of his party when they say that they desire another?

REMEMBER that a vote for the Republicans is a vote to continue the present depression of business. To continue the party in power which has driven the hundreds and thousands of working men out of employment, and bringing starvation to your doors, is but another name for Grantism.

JOHN ALLISON, Jr., our able nominee for Senator, has, so far, made a vigorous canvass of the District, and reports that he has found no disaffection in the ranks of the party. Allison and Park are certain of seats in the next Legislature. They are both moderate and conservative in their views on all question of public interest, and will make excellent members.

SINCE their Waterloo defeat in Indiana, the Republican leaders have seriously contemplated and discussed the necessity of withdrawing Hayes and substituting Grant, who will be instructed to carry the elections at the point of the bayonet. Such is the desperation which pervades the crew of the sinking ship. And it bears so heavily on the old man's mind that utter defeat, and rout of foot and horse, if something is not done.

THE UNION AND AMERICAN supports the Democratic nominees in the present canvass. Though independent enough to condemn and criticize what is wrong in the party, we have always found it best to support the ticket put in the field by our convention. We do not wish to make any war whatever on those excellent gentlemen who differ with us. We wish to occupy high ground regardless of criticism, and pursue an honorable course—one that will not bring the blush of shame to our cheeks when the canvass shall have ceased to be of interest to the public.

DURING the canvass for the primary election, very little was done concerning the legitimate canvass for the campaign. The majority of the candidates would not submit their claims to it, and it was considered as not being a fair test of the strength of the various candidates for the Legislature. A convention was then called by the county committee to settle the matter. At first Park was not satisfied about allowing his name to go before that body. But, being assured that it would be the final action of the Democratic party, he authorized Mr. Robert Dobson to have his name brought forward. His name was placed before the convention by Mr. Henry; with what result is generally known. No one could be expected to do more. He received the nomination from the primary election; was again nominated by the convention and now asks the Democrats to sustain his claims. It is no more than could be expected, and no more than the party is in duty bound to do. We ask that the organization of party be completed and all obstacles removed.

IT HAS been asserted that some of the friends of Mr. Park would not support Mr. Hugh D. Maloney "because, as they alleged, he had been a rebel." We were present in the convention and heard no such declaration. It is curious that none but the friends of Col. Bullen, who were opposed to Mr. Park in the convention, should have heard such a thing. We are satisfied that it is being circulated to produce the impression that there is a division in the Democratic ranks on that subject. We have voted together and sustained our candidates, without any reference to war issues. We sustained Col. Bullen two years ago. We elected him. We are willing to vote for him again if he will come into the Democratic fold without reserve and submit his claims to the party as other Democrats do, and not without it. The supremacy of our principles and our party are far above any personal aspirations and ambition.

LET the Democracy sustain their action in the convention. It is no time to stand and quibble over minor differences. The question is, are we going to allow the personal differences between candidates to defeat the great principles of our party? Are we going to suffer our principles to be trailed in the dust and be defeated by the minority because of the difference of opinions of our friends? We must not do it. We must sustain the action of our party, even if we think it might have been bettered. If we do so we will be successful. If not, we may suffer defeat. We call upon all Democrats to lay aside all feelings of a personal character, and sustain the convention of our party, and we can beat the representatives of the Republican party by over five hundred majority. The candidate of the convention will receive a large majority of the Democratic votes of the county. We are certain, if the convention is sustained, that Mr. Park can carry the vote of Col. Bullen, and beat Major Henry and Dr. Jerolds by at least three hundred majority.

FROM what we have heard some of the candidates for the Legislature before the primary election, and again before the convention, will not support the candidate nominated by the Democratic party in convention. This is all wrong. All could not receive the nomination, and they are in duty, as well as by custom, bound to support the candidate of the convention. By going into it you are bound to sustain the result, whether in accordance with your wishes or not. What hope have we of uniting the power of the party? What necessity of united action to secure the field clear for one candidate for any position if every one feels himself not bound to sustain the action of the party in making a nomination? Are we to break up the party into factions simply because the candidate is not one of our choice, even when he is the nominee of a large portion of the party? We hope gentlemen will think twice before they do so rash an act? Under such circumstances what hope can we have for the future harmony of the Democracy? We will be broken into factions. We cannot concentrate our force to contend against the opposition. We might as well give up the fight and go home and leave our enemies to reap the benefits of our apathy and disorganization. We might as well break up and declare ourselves not able to meet the issues of the times and make room for others who will do the work, even if against the will of the people.

DON'T! DON'T!! Please don't, Colonel. If you should go to preaching funerals you would have to leave your party, and we would not have you do that for anything in the world. Your enemies might say something that might not set so well on your stomach, and might give you a bad case of colic. If you should have a bad attack, send to us, and we'll send you a bottle of soothing syrup.

THE New Era would have the people think that Judge Randolph is a powerful man and is gaining strength (any one might be lead to suspect that they meant intellectual) every day. We were inclined to think that he was rather weak for a giant. It only shows how little the Republicans are willing to expect, and how little they are thankful to receive.

IT is said that New York is to be the battle field from this time till November 7. The Republicans say they must carry that state—which is a good deal like saying they must climb to the moon. New York is Tilden's own state; he carried it two years ago over Gov. Dix, the strongest Republican in the state, by 54,317, and the Democrats assert nothing less than 75,000 will satisfy them in November.

THE Republican majority in Ohio is but a hollow victory. The Democracy have a majority of ninety on the popular vote. The "bloody shirt" and money have been of little avail. The state will be quite certain for the Democrats in November. The whole country will be too much ground for the Republicans to scatter the funds of their already depleted treasury. The assessments have been made and the amount has been expended in Ohio and Indiana, to secure fraudulent and imported voters. You have been beaten on high ground and low ground, from the lakes to the banks of the river on the South. The requiem is that you are lost, weighed in the balance of public justice and found wanting.

HON. JOHN M. BRIGHT, member of Congress, from this State, made a speech in Greenville yesterday. Gen. Bright is one of the ablest debaters in the South. He gave a close, logical, and interesting statement of the workings of the Democracy of the House of Representatives during the last session. He arraigned the Republican party at the bar of public justice for the many acts of malfeasance in office. He showed that the public debt had been increased by four hundred million dollars in order to give the Republican party the privilege of saying that they were in favor of returning to specie payment, and other like impracticable measures.

COL. JOHN H. SAVAGE made a speech to day. He gave the people something to think of. He gave a searching review of national finance, and then took up the State financial problem. He is well qualified to handle the subject, and claims that a large portion of the bonds were not issued in accordance with the law, and therefore, the people are not in duty bound to pay only so far as they were sold in compliance with the law.

The law says that no bonds shall be issued for less than par. He shows that a large portion were sold below par. He thinks that any court of equity will declare that the State is only bound to pay what it received with the interest on the same. The people would be satisfied with such a determination and a settlement upon such a basis.

DR. JEROLDS, the Republican candidate for the Legislature, is a "fine old Irish gentleman, one of the oldest kind." He made a speech over in the second district, a few days since. They say the way he lit into the Democrats was a caution to the little vipers. We understand that he defied the world and the rest of mankind to refute some of his charges. One of the yeomanry made up his mind that this "fine old Irish gentleman, one of the oldest kind," had had his own way about long enough, and proposed a division of time, which was very graciously acceded to by this "fine old Irish gentleman, one of the oldest kind." In a few well timed remarks, he demolished this "fine old Irish gentleman, one of the oldest kind," and made him think that it took only one man to demolish him!

THE Republican candidates for the Legislature are trying to gain a few votes by reporting that Col. Bullen is the democrat whom they have to beat. That is a little too thin; very much too thin. It is the plan of the Republicans to use every means in their power to make a portion of the Democrats think that the case is hopelessly against the nominee of the majority of the Democratic party. It is a piece of campaigning that the Republicans have been successful at in the past. It is your province to weaken the strongest candidate of your opponents if possible. We understand your game. We know what you expect to gain by your able (?) interference in behalf of the minority candidate of the Democrats. We don't blame you for trying to defeat your opponents, as "all is fair in love and war," but we wish you to understand that we know what you are up to, and shall warn our party against your machinations. The fact is, that Mr. Park is by far the strongest candidate. He is the choice of the majority of the Democratic party. This is an undeniable fact. That he will secure the vote of the majority of the Democratic party of the county is equally undeniable. It is a desperate stratagem that you are driven to, and you must whistle louder to keep up your courage to give you an excuse to contend against the Democracy. Go on, and seek to secure as many votes for yourselves, but we will take care of ourselves, without any help from you or yours.

GRANTISM is crushed to earth never to rise again. The bloody shirt will be bleached. Chandler, Baine, Morton, and the rest may cease to trouble themselves about the solid south, for they will have enough to do to prevent a solid North. For every vote the Republicans may secure by bayonets in the South, they will lose five in the North. The battle will now be transferred to New York, but no fear need be entertained in regard to the State that has twice given a majority for Tilden—Baltimore Gazette.

THIS is the style in which Chas. Francis Adams puts it in favor of Tilden and Hendricks: "The time has now come for a radical change, and the substitution of a wholly new influence tied up by no restrictions other than the genuine wishes of honest men of both parties. When in a great popular convention of a party to nominate a candidate for the presidency one gentleman deeply compromised by the investigations of a committee of the house of representatives comes within twenty-five votes of a nomination, and another, who really did honor to himself by fearless and effective exposure of corruption in high places, could not command many more than a hundred votes, it seems to me that it is high time for a change in the public opinion."
